Etisalat Lanka 'Spot the Train' competition an engaging activity launched by the brand on its official Social Media pages Facebook, Twitter and Instagram came to a successful end with high participant and 04 lucky winners. This specially branded Etisalat train offered a free shuttle service during the Posen season and now continues to tour the cities. The competition called for people to spot the Etisalat train, snap an image and post the image on one of Etisalat Social Media sites with #EtisalatTrain. Winners are selected weekly and rewarded with an exciting array of gifts making this yet another initiative from Etisalat to make engaging and rewarding connections with its loyal customers.
